

Our Class is a Family

The 'why' for this topic Children will recognise that they are unique in their appearances, ideas, beliefs and interests. They will understand that they share similarities and differences with their friends and they will learn about respecting each other.

Languages, literacy and communication

I am learning to sound out words using my phonic knowledge

I am learning to recognise and spell high frequency words: I, my, the, Mum, Dad, have, went, play, go, to.

I am learning to write my full name and form my letters correctly.

I am learning to talk in full sentence clearly and confidently.

Welsh Language Patterns:

Pwy wyt ti? Sut wyt ti? Sut mae'r tywydd heddlw? Ga i.... Faint ydy dy oed di?

Science and Technology

I am learning to explore the natural world around me.

I am learning to notice changes in my environment.

I am learning about the seasons and notice changes in my environment.

I am learning to log in to digital platforms.

Health and Wellbeing

I am learning to think about my own thoughts and feelings.

I am learning to pay attention to how others are feeling.

I am learning what my body needs to be healthy.

I am learning to work safely in the classroom.

I am learning to ask for help when needed.

Year1

Autumn term 2026

Mathematics and Numeracy

I am learning to write numbers to 20.

I am learning to form numbers correctly.

I am learning to find 2D shapes in my environment.

I am learning to order and sort numbers.

I am learning to measure using blocks and compare lengths.

I am learning to find out how many tens and units are in teen numbers.

Expressive Arts

I am learning to draw using clear lines and shapes.

I am learning to say what I like about my creative work.

I am learning to cut along a straight and curved line.

Humanities

I am learning to ask questions and share my ideas.

I am learning to notice and talk about my school and where I live.

I am learning to notice what is around my school in the local area.

I am learning about Harvest and what I am thankful for.

Together we learn, together we grow