

Languages, literacy and communication

I am learning to write a full sentence using a capital letter, finger spaces and a full stop.
I am learning to recognise and use high frequency words in my writing: I, my, have, we, she, he, they, go, to, the.

I am learning to talk in full sentences clearly and confidently.

I am learning to use interesting adjectives in my writing.

I am learning to write a poem using my senses.

Welsh Language Patterns:

Pwy wyt ti? Sut wyt ti? Ble rwyf ti'n byw? Pa liw ydy dy llygaid/gwallt di? Mae ____ gyda fi.

Year 2 Autumn term 2026

Mathematics and Numeracy

I am learning to write numbers to 100.
I am learning to count forwards in 2s, 5s and 10s to 100.

I am learning to find out how many hundreds, tens and units are in 2- and 3-digit numbers.

I am learning to partition numbers into hundreds, tens and units.

I am learning to measure using standard and non-standard units and compare measurements.

I am learning to order a sequence of numbers, explain more, less and in between.

I am learning to name 2D and 3D shapes and their properties.

Our Class is a Family

Children will recognise that they are unique in their appearances, ideas, beliefs and interests. They will understand that they share similarities and differences with their friends and will learn to respect one another. Children will understand how they belong to their class and school community.

Science and Technology

I am learning to explore the natural world around me.

I am learning about the seasons and notice changes in my environment.

I am learning to use digital technology safely.

I am learning to present my information using digital technology.

Health and Wellbeing

I am learning to think about my own thoughts and feelings.

I am learning to pay attention to how others are feeling.

I am learning to be respectful towards others and their ideas.

I am learning how to keep safe in my environment.

I am learning what my body and mind needs to be healthy.

Expressive Arts

I am learning to draw using clear lines and shapes.

I am learning to use a range of resources and techniques.

I am learning to say what I like about the creative work I and others make.

I am learning to create work using mixed medias.

Humanities

I am learning to ask questions and share my ideas.

I am learning to notice and describe what people, places and environments are special to me and why.

I am learning to notice what is around my school in the local area.

I am learning about Harvest and what I am thankful for.

Together we learn, together we grow